

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-Four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—Fair;
Blue—Rain or snow;
With black above—Twill warmer grow.
If black's beneath—Colder't will be;
Unless black shows—no change
we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

AS BLACK AS PAINTED.

When I think of the towel,
The old-fashioned towel,
That used to hang up by the printing-house
door,
I think that nobody,
In these days of shoddy,
Can hammer out iron to wear as it wore.
The tramp who abused it,
The devil who used it,
The comp. who got at it when these two were gone,
The makout and foreman,
The editor, poor man,
Each rubbed some grime off for the heap they put on.
In, over and under,
'Twas blacker than thunder;
'Twas harder than poverty, rougher than sin.
From the roller suspended,
It never was bended,
And it flapped on the wall like a banner of tin.

It grew thicker and rougher,
And harder and tougher,
And daily put on a more inky hue;
Until, one windy morning,
Without any warning,
It fell to the floor and was broken in two.

sends 433 stamps for Miss Dollie Rose.

WALTER, the little son of B. F. Williams, is very sick at his home in the Fifth Ward.

COLDS, caused by the sudden change of temperature at this season of the year, make Ayer's Cherry Pectoral indispensable.

THE Baptist Church was crowded last night with people to hear Evangelist Fife deliver one more of his interesting talks, and it was interesting. He talked almost exclusively to the officers and church members, and, to use a rough expression,
"he ripped them up the back" for not doing their duty as professed followers of Christ. There will be four meetings today—one at 10:30 a. m., for everybody, one for ladies at the Baptist Church at 2:30 p. m., one at 3:30 p. m. at the Y. M. C. A.
Room and this evening at 7:30 for all who see fit to go hear him at the Baptist Church. Mr. Fife, with the aid of the Christain people of our city, is determined to reach the unsaved. A young man from Charleston, W. Va., was in the audience last night, and told the people what Mr.
Fife accomplished at that place. Now, let's rally to his support here and do likewise. Everybody invited. Doors open at 6:45 p. m. sharp.

Mrs. M. M. Foudray sends from Cottageville 100 stamps for Miss Dollie Rose.

LOUISVILLE talks of spending for parks that million dollars offered for the State Capital.

THOMAS R. WARDEN of Forest avenue also adds to the stamp collection for Miss Dollie Rose.

J. H. SAWYER and G. H. Keane of Fort Springs have gone to Washington to testify in the Pollard-Breckinridge case in behalf of the plaintiff.

THE horse attached to Charles Wetzel's wagon took fright yesterday, plunged down the bank at Third and Poplar and upset the wagon. No serious damage.

MAYSVILLE is the place, Wednesday, May 9th, is the day and 11 a. m. is the hour when the Democrats of the Ninth District will put up a candidate for Congress—for the Republicans to beat.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN
LEDGER.

RYDER & RUDY have received another large shipment of ready mixed paints and window glass.

DANIEL MEEHAN, who left Washington two years ago, has returned with his bride, Miss McGann of Georgetown, Ky., and taken rooms at the private boarding-house of Thomas Means. It is rumored he is studying for the Baptist Ministry.
Success to him is the wish of his many friends.

DR. THOMAS HANFORD, formerly of this city, educated in Spurgeon's College, London, and now Pastor of Shinkle Chapel, Covington, delivered, without manuscript, a concise and comprehensive address before the Preachers' meeting at Cincinnati Monday on the Catholicity of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The doctrine of "Apostolical succession" was shown to be a chain with missing links but Methodist clergymen have whatever there is of it.

FOR breaking the glass in street lamps at Paris a diminutive coon paid $8.

J. R. WYLLIE, the new Postmaster at Princeton, has rented an office for one year with the privilege of three more.
This looks to a man up a tree as if Postmaster Wyllie expects to lose his job at the expiration of the present term of Grover Cleveland.

LEWIS J. RATLIFF went to Mahoney's Distillery near Lebanon Sunday morning and got up a quarrel with the owner, who struck him on the head with a hatchet.
He then dragged Ratliff a short distance, and placing his neck across a log severed the head from his body.

Ratliff leaves a widow and several children. He had been in more bad rows than any other one man in the county.
Mahoney is a quiet and peaceable man and has never before been in trouble.

THE REASON WHY.

The Free-Trade Party is Being Buried "Out of Sight" Because So Many People Are Singing This Song.

THE EMPTY DINNER PAIL.

AS I SIT HERE IDLY DREAMING OF THE HAPPY TIME THAT'S GONE, NOT A DOLLAR IN MY POCKET, AND THE WINTER COMING ON,
THE THING THAT BREAKS ME UP THE MOST, AND MAKES ME FEEL SO SMALL,
IS THE SIGHT OF THAT OLD DINNER PAIL, HANGING ON THE WALL.

I'VE CARRIED THAT OLD DINNER PAIL FOR FIFTEEN YEARS OR MORE
AND IT NEVER SAW ME OUT OF WORK OR DESTITUTE BEFORE,
FOR WITH SHOPS AND FACTORIES RUNNING AND THE BEST OF WAGES PAID
A PROSPEROUS LOT OF FELLOWS WERE THE DINNER PAIL BRIGADE.

BUT YOU SEE WE WASN'T SATISFIED, THOUGH IT SEEMS MOST MIGHTY STRANGE, AND WE SAID WE THOUGHT THE COUNTRY WOULD BE BETTER FOR A CHANGE,
AND WE RAILED ABOUT THE TARIFF, AND WE BLOWED ABOUT FREE TRADE AND WE VOTED DEMOCRATIC, DID THE DINNER PAIL BRIGADE.

WELL A CHANGE WAS WHAT WE WANTED, AND WE GOT IT TOO, YOU BET,
FOR THE SHOPS AND FACTORIES ALL SHUT DOWN, AND LEFT US IN THE WET,
THE BANKS SUSPENDED PAYMENT, AND I LOST MY LITTLE ALL.

AND THE DINNER PAIL IS EMPTY NOW, THAT'S HANGING ON THE WALL.

I'M DEPENDENT NOW ON CHARITY FOR THE ROOF ABOVE MY HEAD, AND I'VE SEEN MY WIFE AND LITTLE ONE GO HUNGRY TO THEIR BED
BUT I'VE PLENTY TIME FOR THINKING, AND I SEE IT ISN'T STRANGE FOR I VOTED DEMOCRATIC JUST TO HAVE A LITTLE CHANGE.

YES WE VOTED DEMOCRATIC, AND YOU SEE THE CHANGE HAS MADE A LOT OF HUNGRY BEGGARS OF THE DINNER PAIL BRIGADE, THE WORKINGMEN ARE IDLE, BUT THE WORMWOOD AND THE GALL IS TO SEE THE EMPTY DINNER PAIL, HANGING ON THE WALL.

THE Kentucky Medical Society will hold its next annual at Shelbyville June 6-8. About 300 physicians from various parts of the state are expected to attend.

THE election for Superintendent of the County Infirmary will take place in the Fiscal Court today. The candidates, so far as known late last night, were John Ryan, the present incumbent, Squire Grant Killpatrick, W. T. Hilen, Mr. Rosser and Mr. Slattery of Mayslick.

EVERYBODY who knows Colonel W. W.
Baldwin knows that he is never so happy as when holding the reins on his pair of spirited trotters. The Colonel is a frequent and always welcome visitor to Maysville; but a few days ago his team got beyond the limits of travel permitted by ordinance, and Judge Wadsworth fined him $10 and costs.

Notice to Dog Owners.

The police officers will be out with shotguns this evening, and will continue from day to day, until all dogs having no tags are killed. By order
W. H. Cox, Mayor.

April 4th, 1894.

ALVIN ROSS and James Harrington, charged with burgling the house of Mrs.
Johanna Tierney, Fifth Ward, were yesterday dismissed by Judge Wadsworth.

Mrs. MARY QUINN, the "Irish Queen," who twenty years ago was toasted as the most beautiful woman in Kentucky, is dying at the Clarendon Hotel, Lexington.
Her sons, Charles and James Quinn of Chicago, the noted turfmen, and her daughter, Mrs. P. A. Brady, wife of the well known bookmaker of St. Louis, have been summoned to her bedside.
Her sisters in Mt. Sterling and Paris and Cincinnati relatives have also been sent for. She has pneumonia.

MEN WHO ARE ALWAYS BUSY.

Paine's Celery Compound Brightens
the Eye, Increases the Appetite, Restores Sleep, Regulates the Vital Organs.

Under the stress of social or business duties, or both, how few business men find time to properly repair the waste of excessive mental labor and close confinement?

The result of this neglect plainly to be read in the care worn, nervous faces and physical poverty of the average business man one meets.

But Paine's Celery Compound brightens their eyes, increases their appetite, causes good digestion and regular action of the organs of assimilation.

Much so-called overwork of business men is the overwork of worry, care, anxiety, haste. These make the severest drafts on their vitality. Those who suffer from nervous debility, mental depression, sleeplessness or dyspepsia find Paine's Celery Compound a powerful restorative. It regulates the liver and kidneys, cleanses the blood and feeds the nerves and nerve centers all over the body. Recovery from diseases of the liver, kidneys and stomach by the aid of Paine's Celery Compound is lasting. It is the greatest of all modern restorative agents.

Paine's Celery Compound is prescribed by physicians who differ in many other things but agree in estimating highly this greatest of remedies for curing diseases of the kidneys, rheumatism, gout, dyspepsia, Bright's disease and stomach disorders due to a deranged nervous system.

MISS LENA PETRY has sent 515 stamps for Miss Dollie Rose.

You should have all the numbers of the Magic City. Look over what you have,
and if any No. is missing come to this office with your coupons and 10 cents and get it. If you haven't the coupons you can get the portfolio for 15 cents.

FISCAL COURT.

APRIL MEETING OF THE ABLE MAGISTRATES.

The Good 'Squires Aid Limestone
Bridge—Several Other Important Matters Receive Prompt Attention
—Claims Allowed.

BOYS, YOU'RE REAL NICE GIRLS!

The Mason Fiscal Court convened yesterday, Hon. Thomas R. Phister presiding, with T. M. Pearce Clerk and John C.
Lovel Deputy Clerk and Hon. Charles D.
Newell County Attorney.

Justices J. M. Ball and G. G. Kill-patrick and W. C. Pelham Surveyor reported in favor of the proposed route of the Hebron and Salem Ridge Turnpike, beginning at Hebron Church, thence along the present county road to the Germantown and Lowell pike at Mrs.
Pumpelly's house.

T. M. Pearce, County Clerk, was appointed to settle the levy with the Sheriff for 1893.

The following committees on paupers made reports which were filed: F. M.
Lunsford for Louis Mills and Rena Points; Leon Patterson for Lillian Brothers and W. J. Wooster; J. S. Woodward for Jasper Henson and Mary R. Reeves; S.
M. Woodward for George Curtis; C. W.
Williams for Ellen Stravis and Edna Anderson; Louis Jenkins for Travis
Weaver; J. W. Alexander for Eva Martin;
E. L. Belfry for Marshall Payne, Garrison Child and Laura Hunter; James Earnshaw for Mary Jackson; S. P. Perrine for James Wilson; A. F. Wood for Isaac Garrison, Nancy Ward, Rebecca Ambrose
and Thomas Jackson; James R. Rot-erson for Hugh Seeds; John E. Wells for Dilba Tucker; J. C. Jefferson for Anna
Harding and Lucinda A. Singleton; J. H.
Grigsby for Mary Dotson.

E. L. Belfry reported that Charlotte Smith, for whose benefit he held $25, had died, and he was directed to cover the money into the Treasury.

'Squires James Chamberlain, J. M.
Alexander and James Earnshaw were appointed to audit claims against the county.

'Squire Luttrell moved to reduce the salaries of county officers 20 per cent;
but the motion was almost unanimously lost.

The salaries for the next year were fixed as follows:

County Judge $1,000.
County Attorney $500 and $100 for office rent.
Jail Physician $100, he to furnish the medicines.
Superintendent of Infirmary $800, he to furnish matron.

Chairman Board of Infirmary Directors
$75.

Infirmary Physician $250, he to furnish medicines.

County Superintendent of Schools $900.

T. M. Pearce was allowed $60 for coal for county offices and $40 for making settlement with the Sheriff.

Judge Phister called attention to the matter of appropriating a sum to aid in paying for the iron bridge over Limestone.

'Squire Luttrell moved to postpone indefinitely.

But the Magistrates were in the humor to do what they now believed was right and manly and neighborly, and a motion to pay the city of Maysville $2,500 was carried by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Grant, Miller, Holton,
Chamberlain, Earnshaw, Lunsford, Ball,
Runyon, Grigsby, Williams, McVaine,
Alexander, Farrow, Belfry, Worthington,
Killpatrick, Mannen—17.

Nays—Messrs. Collis, Bateman, Owens,
Wood, Mastin, Woodward, Luttrell—7.

Absent—Messrs. Weaver and Raymond—2.

This was doing an act of simple justice to the city, and THE LEDGER hopes the gentlemen who carried the measure may never be compelled to wear Cleveland badges as a result of the additional tax that it will impose on them. May the "roorbacks" live to see the day when they will repent the folly of their wisdom!

A proposition from stockholders to surrender their holdings in the Blue Run road and convert it into a county road was tabled.

The same was done with a proposition from stockholders of the Wolf's Run and Forman's Mill road.

The proposition to build a bridge across North Fork near Farrow's Mill was postponed, and 'Squire Farrow authorities to confer with Lewis county authorities and report.

The members accepted an invitation to dine with Superintendent Ryan at the Infirmary today. [They needn't be afraid now to cross the elegant bridge over Limestone.]

The following claims were presented and allowed:

Maysville Water Co.	117 50
Citizens' Gas Co.	71 25
Rosser & McCarthy, printing ballots	257 50
Bradley & Gilbert, blank books	45 65
Courier-Journal Co., blank books	34 00
